Look in Your Mirror

Do you see sparkling eyes, a healthy, tinted skin, a sweet expression and a graceful form? These attractions are the result of good health. If they are absent, there is nearly always some disorder of the distinctly feminine organs present. Healthy menstrual organs mean health and beauty everywhere.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

makes women beautiful and healthy. It strikes at the root of all their trouble. There is no menstrual disorder, ache or pain which it will not cure. It is for the budding girl, the busy wife and the matron approaching the change of life. At every trying crisis in a woman's life it brings health, strength and happiness. It costs $1.00 of medicine dealers.

A TRIBUTE TO A FRIEND.

Garrette McCarty passed peacefully to rest Friday morning, March 16, 1900, at 7 o'clock. All who knew him, and the number was not small, heard with deep regret the news of the death of dear friend, Mc., as he was familiarly called, and many were shocked by its suddenness.

Only a few weeks ago, and seemingly, a more perfect model of grace and manly strength could hardly be found, but death's untimely frost came when least expected, and left a joyous, sunny home bereft of a tender, devoted, husband, brother and friend.

Sorrowing ones, in his death, is portrayed one of God's mysterious, yet painful lessons, and in this dark hour human sympathy and God's promises offer freely their consolation. I had known Mc. years ago, and one's true character, comes out by intimate association, and by this intimacy, have I found traits in his character admirable, lofty, generous and manly. A truer, nobler, more genial man and friend I have rarely met, and when I meet again those friends of vanished years (his family) 'twill thrill me with sad, lingering regret for him we mourn today, for he will be sadly missed. Death came to him while yet the first tinge of blooming manhood had not been brushed by time, or blighted by adversities or worldly cares. This home life was beautiful and peaceful, surrounded by everything to make his happiness, a devoted christian wife, who idolized him, gentle, loving sisters, nephew and nieces, which made up the sunshine of his life on earth, continued in Glory by mother, father and other loved ones around the Throne of God. His instincts were those of love and kindness. None knew better than he, how to spread the veil of charity over the shortcomings of others. He was a useful citizen, full of bright attainments and future promises.

His death breaks the magic circle of sweet home love and kindred ties, and to his dear, heart-broken wife, family and friends, I would say, let us trust that the "Great Ruler of the universe Who sees the end from the beginning, and orders all things right" will strengthen and support you in your hour of sorrow.

One more soul is safely anchored
In the harbor of the blest;
One more home left sad and lonely,
One more body laid to rest.

Till the final trump has sounded
And the graves give up their dead
There a golden crown is waiting
For each faithful servant's head.

Ah, that cruel death must sever,
From our midst a friend so true;
Blessed Savior in our anguish,
Let us turn and trust to you.

May we learn in thy sweet counsel
Ere the race of life be run,
To say—when in our deepest sorrow,
Thy will—O God—not mine, be done.

Wilt thou send a guardian angel
From the great White Throne above,
Down to heal the broken-hearted,
Down to tell them of Thy love.

May that angel point us upward,
Through a sea of golden light,
Where we'll see the one we grieve for
Safely at our Father's right.

Then sad hearts cease thy weeping,
Trust, O trust, and faint no more,
A little while and you will join him,
On that bright and shining shore.

A FRIEND.

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 26, 1900.

HUMPHREY, CASEY COUNTY.

Mrs. Etta Emmerson died of consumption at the home of her grandfather, Hiram Salyers, last week. She leaves a husband and two infant children to mourn her loss.

Farming prospects are all right in this section. Farmers are busy breaking land for the forth-coming corn crop. A large quantity of wheat was sown last fall, which promises a splendid yield.

Miss Maggie Brown, Luther G. Elliott, Claude Hatter and brother have all returned in the last few days from the State College, Lexington. Taylor Wesley has also returned from the Commercial College at the same place.

We learn from the proper authority that James Humphrey Post No. 81, G. A. R. at its regular monthly meeting the 1st Saturday in this month, after conferring with interested parties, selected Liberty as the place for decorating the graves of soldiers on May 30th. No more appropriate place could have been selected. A number of gallant officers and soldiers are buried there; besides this, that town was for many years the dwelling place of two distinguished regimental and brigade commanders who gained national fame for themselves and command. We allude to Col. Wolford and Adams. The public and those who wore the blue and those who wore the gray are cordially invited to attend, fraternize and lay aside any little squabble that was between them 35 or 40 years ago. It is understood that among other distinguished speakers on that occasion, invitation will be extended to Judge J. W. Alcorn and other confederates, of Stanford, to represent the gray and Hon. Vincent Boring, London, and Judge Denton, of Somerset, to represent the blue. E. T.

$100 REWARD. $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer $100 for any case that it fails to cure, and for list of testimonials.

Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, etc. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

The "sitting waltz" is now said to be the thing in fashionable New York and Washington. The "sitting waltz" embodies the position as dancing—the only difference is you sit instead of dance. The man's right arm is around the girl's waist while his left hand holds her right. Her left hand is placed on his shoulder while her head rests lovingly upon his bosom and all they do is to listen to the music.

SPAIN'S GREATEST NEED.
Mr. R. P. Oliva, of Barcelona, Spain, sends his winters at Aiken, S. C. Weak nerves had caused severe pains in the back of his head. On using Electric Bitters, America's greatest Blood and Nerve Remedy, all pain soon left him. He says this grand medicine is what his country needs. All America knows that it cures liver and kidney trouble, purifies the blood, tones up the stomach, strengthens the nerves, puts vim, vigor and new life into every muscle, nerve and organ of the body. If weak, tired or ailing, you need it. Every bottle guaranteed, only 50 cents. Sold by Penny, Druggist.

A MAN CAN MAKE GOLD

Just as easy as he can make iron like that which the liver makes for the blood. It isn't wrought from nor cast iron, nor iron dissolved in hydrochloric acid. The liver and nothing else but the liver can make it. If your blood hasn't enough iron in it, you'll never be able to put enough there, no matter how much iron tonic you swallow. Take Red Circle Pills to arouse the liver and nature will do the rest.

A CHEMIST CAN'T MAKE BLOOD
Nor can he make a single constituent of it, but nature can. She makes it with a machine called the liver. The best fuel for the liver is the Red Circle Pill.

JUST LIKE SANDRAGGING
Is the effect of apoplexy. It is a hemorrhage of the brain most often due to a congested liver. The Red Circle Pills untangle the liver and relieve the congestion.

WHEN TAKEN SUDDENLY ILL,
Send for the doctor. When you have been ill for a long time take Red Circle Pills. It's generally the liver that's wrong. They'll make it right and nature will do the rest.

A TON OF GOLD
Is small compensation for a man's health. I see that a drachm of it will pay for the health in a few boxes of Red Circle Pills.
